

INTRODUCTION

ANOTHER YEAR FOR LASALLIANA

LASALLIANA begins another year, the seventh of its existence, during which issues No. 17, 18 and 19 will appear. We thank our many readers for telling us how much they appreciate our publication and for their encouragement. We hope that LASALLIANA will remain faithful to its aims and provide the various sections of the Lasallian Family with information concerning everything that has to do with our Founder, the Institute, our vocation and apostolate, and our work.

LASALLIAN LAY PEOPLE WISH TO HAVE ACCESS TO THESE ARTICLES

We must insist on this: LASALLIANA is intended for the Lasallian Family. Some Districts realise this and distribute copies of each issue not only to Brothers' communities, but also to schools and to those in charge of various Lasallian movements –to teachers, parents, young people, as well as to other persons more closely linked to the world of St. La Salle.

It very satisfying to meet a lay teacher who says to you: "Do you know? I read an article the other day which said that I was an apostle too in school. And he quoted excerpts from St John Baptist de La Salle. It was a real discovery for me". Or then there is the university student who says: "In my last school, I came across a collection of articles, including one which spoke about <Lasallian Volunteers>. I found it interesting and it made me think. I didn't know the Brothers organised things like that..."

In fact, the articles we include in LASALLIANA are meant to arouse interest, and this interest will be satisfied if lay teachers have a copy in their staffroom, parents in their meeting rooms, pupils in their library... and if there are copies wherever they are likely to be read.

This explains probably why quite often we are contacted by lay teachers, parents on management committees and former students, who wish to take out a personal subscription to LASALLIANA. It's a good sign.

A NEW SECTION. CORRESPONDENCE

Included in the voluminous correspondence received by LASALLIANA, there have been suggestions from four different quarters –France, Spain, Mexico and Italy– that we should start a correspondence section. This section would enable readers to discover the reactions of other readers to articles published, suggest new ideas, complete information, ask for explanations, and so on. We welcome this suggestion and can make a start straightaway. Readers who wish to contribute to this section may do so, but we make a plea for brevity so that we can satisfy all our customers.

HOW ARTICLES ARE CLASSIFIED

Each article is identified by 4 numbers/letters. E. g.: 16 - 14 - D -34.

- the first number indicates the number of the issue.
- the second, the number of the article in the table of contents.
- the letter indicates the nature of the subject matter.
- the last number indicates how many articles exist already on subjects of a similar nature.

The example given above indicates that the article in question appears in issue No. 16; that it is No. 14 in the table of contents of that issue; that the subject matter relates to lay people and the Lasallian Family; and that 34 articles already exist on related topics.

Subject matter is indicated by letters as follows:

- O. General subjects, miscellaneous.
- A. St. John Baptist de La Salle. Facts, writings, spirituality, teachings, etc.
- B. The FSC Institute: history and present day.
- C. Thoughts on education.
