

N° 18 May 1st 1990

INTRODUCTION

● Issue N° 18 of LASALLIANA is the second of the three planned for 1990. In this issue we have concentrated especially on subjects related to our mission as educators and to the Lasallian Family. In doing so our aim was to offer topics that were thought-provoking and provided material for discussion, in the hope that they would encourage Brothers, communities and teaching establishments to think seriously about them, and lead them to follow the guidelines laid down in the Letter to the Lasallian Family.

● Once again, we should like to stress that these articles are meant to provide information and be used as discussion documents not only by the Brothers, but also by communities as a whole and by lay teachers who wish to reflect more deeply on their vocation as Christian educators.

For this reason it is desirable that there should be enough copies of our publication in all our Lasallian establishments so that they can be used unhurriedly and when the need arises. Quite often, when we have occasion to speak about our mission as educators, we search around for suitable material to use. The aim of this Institute publication is to meet this need by making high-quality articles available on this subject as well as on numerous other Lasallian topics.

● Subscriptions to Lasalliana are dealt with at a District level. The Brother Visitor tells us how many copies he wants and he distributes them on arrival. A certain number of establishments in several countries have told us that they would like more copies. Our answer is that they should take the matter up with their Visitor. This goes also for lay teachers, affiliated members of the Institute and other colleagues who wish to receive copies.

● We mentioned in Issue N° 17 that we were going to start up a correspondence section which would provide an opportunity for readers to ask questions, offer explanations or furnish additional information relating to topics treated in articles. We have already received a number of letters but unfortunately not soon enough to be included in this issue. We hope therefore to launch this new section in our next issue, N° 19, which will include both the letters we have already received and any others that arrive in the meantime.

HOW ARTICLES ARE CLASSIFIED

Each article is identified by 4 numbers/letters. E. g.: 16 - 14 - D - 34.

- the first number indicates the number of the issue.
- the second, the number of the article in the table of contents.
- the letter indicates the nature of the subject matter.
- the last number indicates how many articles exist already on subjects of a similar nature.

The example given above indicates that the article in question appears in issue No. 16; that it is No. 14 in the table of contents of that issue; that the subject matter relates to lay people and the Lasallian Family; and that 34 articles already exist on related topics.

Subject matter is indicated by letters as follows:

- O. General subjects, miscellaneous.
- A. St. John Baptist de La Salle. Facts, writings, spirituality, teachings, etc.
- B. The FSC Institute: history and present day.
- C. Thoughts on education.
- D. Collaboration between the Brothers' Institute and lay people. The Lasallian Family.
- E. Personal witness, experiences, events, celebrations.
